To the Editor:

Tragedy has occurred in the state of Alabama. George Wallace won the primary -- and apparently will have no challengers for the next election. So this is the democracy (equal rights and all that jazz) we wish to impose on Southeast Asia! What a joke! We need to end the war RIGHT NOW and get home and take care of our problems here before they become full-blown ~~crises~~. I can only hope our whole country isn't one day forced to accept equality and patriotism as defined by George Wallace and his bigoted beliefs. Then we won't need to pretend we know what our Constitution ~~and~~ Declaration of Independence are all about, it will be too late.
